

"SALON International Exchange Course"

1st : Calligraphy (Shodo) Experience Course

Saturday, September 16th PM1:00~3:00

Sendai UNESCO Association

Lecturer : Sendai UNESCO Association Member Midori Isago

Profile : Former elementary school teacher. After retiring, she worked as a meister of p4c (Philosophy for Children) at the Uehiro Academy of Ethics Education of Miyagi University of Education, at the same time, she uses her calligraphy skills to hold private classes twice a week. She teaches the joy of calligraphy mainly to children.

Calligraphy is an oriental plastic art that attempts to express the beauty of letters through writing. Although it originated in China, creative activities are carried out in the Japanese sphere using both kana derived from Chinese characters. In 2009, Chinese calligraphy was registered as an Intangible Cultural Heritage by UNESCO.

Sendai UNESCO Youth Division's "International Student Exchange Meeting" held before COVID-19 pandemic

A scene from Isago's classroom

Application for Participation

- Venue : Sendai UNESCO Association Office
- Tuition fee : Free
- All tools will be prepared by the association.
- You need to apply to participate. Please e-mail your name and affiliation to the address below by noon on the 15th.

■ e-mail unesco1947@gmail.com

■ Contact phone number : 022-224-2581